Extract from letter No.C.259/Genl/50 dated 4-11-50 of the Principal Police Recruits School, Coimbatore.

Further I am to inform you that the sentries received, are being trained in mufti and they present a clumsy apperance on the parade ground and find it hard to carry out with their training without proper uniform. They should have been provided with uniform before they were deputed. If you xxxxxxxxx have any uniform to be issued to them, they may please be despatched to me immediately. If you have not, atleast, the next batch of three men awaiting despatch to this centre may be supplied with two khaki shorts and two shirts and one pair of sandals as they are essential to maintain the uniformity in xxxxxxxx dress regulations and better show. Once again I request to point out to you the necessity and urgency of cartidges and invite your speedy compliance.
